

Astoria

As a witch, at sixteen years old we should go to a special school for surnatural people. The name of the school is Eldoria. When I arrive in front of this huge castle, I see the faces of my parents decaying as if it was the last moment they see me. I told them it was fine. Filled with excitement, I hurry myself to going to visit my new school and my new home.

When I walk in the corridors and the long black walls covering by portraits of some people I don't even know, I imagine my ex walking by my side. But I immediatly stop myself remember him like a good wearas he was a complete idiot. Suddently, I have goose bumps of fear because I don't know if I am going to meet him in the corridors. And if I see him, how would I act ? This thought is as creepy as the atmosphere of this castle. Maybe this goose bumps is due to the draught in the corridors. I can't wait to see my future in this school.

Kai

When I walk in the corridors, my desire to leave grows bigger each steps. I miss my holidays. Fortunatly my best friend, Bellinor, saved my years in this damn school. When we speak of the devil, I feel his presence behind me, ready to scare me but he does that every year so it don't surprise me anymore.

But when I turn around, it's not my friend. All of a sudden, I crash into a small thing who has blonde hair, really straight. I can't see her face but when she lift her haid, her blue eyes submerge all of my person. I go down in my knee to help her and she told me she doesn't need my help, with an anger face. I dislike her so much, how can I see her attractive wearas she is just rude ? Looking closer, she is really pretty but now I reject any idea of her.

Astoria

When this guy crashes into me, he seems so handsome but with my shyness, i reject him like a rude person even if it's not like me or it was.

When I reject him, I know he was going to hate me deeply. But I don't need a cliché of popular guy in my life.

During my stand up, I see a creepy familiar face. My nightmare is going to be realized. My exboyfriend is standing in front of me and pushes me under ground to humiliate me. I wanted to get him a spell but I risk to be expelled because using power outside classes is totally forbidden. Suddenly everyone is watching me and laughing.

Kai

I walk away with this beautiful unknow, I hear a group of people laughing. I turn around and see my pretty nightmare on the floor. I don't know who is this guy but he is going to be my enemy. I call Bellinor and together we push away this disgusting guy. Who is he to bully my enemy ? He smells the blood so far, I want to bite him in the neck. But I resist to the temptation for getting up my pretty thing. I put a strand of hair behind her ears and she looks at me with surprised eyes, I have never seen before. I don't know why I make all these questions. Why i defend her wearas I don't do that usually because I'm so selfish to care. And more important, why her ? Returning to the reality, she pushes me away and gets out away from me, embarrassed.

One week later

The secrecy of the school have given me a great news. My asks for tutoring has been accepted. I'm so happy. So I'm directly lead to the library to met my new student.

When I arrive, I see, with a lot of surprise, Kai, standing nonchalantly against the embrasure of the door. Him again! He follows me, it's not possible. But despite all I'm a little happy to see him. When I approach him, I see a smirk on his lips like he is amused to see me. He comes and I see his imposing body covering me. I try to not react. I tell him to sit for studying but I know it's not his project. So We begging to discuss a lot and I know I judged him to fast. Finally, he can be kind when he wants. I'm getting attached to him.

Kai

I don't know why but I'm getting attached to her. I'm strangely kind which is very strange to my behalf. Maybe it's her lighting blue eyes. I want to learn more about her. So, I impose her a rendez-vous. She has no choice. I'm so fond of her.

Astoria

This rendez-vous was pretty good. Kai invited me in his room. The room is at his image, dark and mysterious. When I sit on the couch, he comes over me and makes a rapprochement. But a faint scent of blood stinks the room, leaving me uncomfortable. But I don't to break the moment and I make a spell to put out the smell. My heartbeat begins to faster. Ours lips almost brush when we are suddenly interrupted by a man entering in the chamber. The man is a vampire, his lips can't cover his sharp teeth. The atmosphere broken, I just want to bury myself alive. I run away from this evil chamber.

Kai

I'm going to run after her when she stops me telling me that we are not allow to be together. The laws are very strict about the relationships between the different kind of supernaturals. The sanction is so heavy that nobody wants to break it.

She tells me all of this should never happen but instantly I tell her I would break all of the rules for her. At this time I getting her over me by her hips and I give her a furious kiss, our first kiss.

Astoria

After our first kiss, our relationship was developed but we are more and more in danger. I see that when his best friend, Bellinor, the guy who interrupted us last time, see us kissing each other secretly. Now, I know we are in danger because I feel that something bad it's going to happened. Bellinor has this feeling too because he won't stop telling us to be careful because tha sanction of the relation is the death. My presentiment realized itself when I see my ex boyfriend walking in our direction during our kiss in the corridor. Kai hide himself to not being seen when my ex boyfriend come toward me to insult me. I don't have time to respond that Kai throws himself at him to hit him before I have the time to react.

Suddenly, Esther knows what happens between us, I see it in his eyes. So, he pushes Kai away and runs so fast like I never see that before. Kai and me are freaking out about what Esther could do.

Kai

After this incident, strangely Esther keeps a low profile over us. But I know, deep in my heart, that he does something when I received an email from the director of the school. The mail orders us to come immediately in the office. Astoria receives this mail too. We go at this appointment together. When we enter in the office we see, without surprise, Esther discussing with a police officer and the director. We know instantly that he has denounced us.

Now, we are at the moment I worry the most. It's the moment we tell you our story. A short story but a passionate one. Yes, it is short but when I see the death in front of my face, all I remember is our story over all of my life. I only see her crying but I want to sweep out her tears. When you will recount our story, I hope you will think about our love more than our tragedy. I climb on the stage, somebody I don't know pass the rope around my neck. I turn my face on my right to see her smiling to me to reassure me like she always does. It's the last image I have in my mind and I thank her for that.

Astoria

When I get over my car to say good bye at my parents, I told you I had a presentiment that something will happened. I have never imagined a story like that. But if that is my endgame, I accept that with pleasure. Not the fact of seeing his neck broken but the fact we finish our life together. The last image he had was my smile even if it was to reassure him and not to show him my sad and feared face. But now, it's my turn to climb in the stage and pass a rope around my neck. But my last image at me it's my dammed ex boyfriend who is smiling. I was the Kai's little enemy and he was my stupid student. Like we said: "always and forever".
